She Got Game Tournament

Rules & Regulations:

Rosters:

Rosters must be submitted to a BALL (Break Away Ladies League) Representative before the start of the tournament. Rosters may not exceed 12 players.

Game Rules:

All players must sign the BAL League Waiver (waiver) to play and be on their team's Official Roster (roster). These documents must be printed and filled out prior to the start of the tournament.

1. Each game consists of two 20 minute halves with a running clock. The clock will only stop during a play stoppage in the last two minutes of the game or upon a timeout.
2. Each team will get two timeouts per half. Time outs do not carry over to the next half. A team is not able to advance the ball to half court on a timeout. A timeout is not automatic, it must be granted by the official. Only a player on the court may call timeout. If a timeout is called and the team has none, a technical foul will be assessed – (Chris Webber Rule). The first overtime, each team has one timeout. Regulation timeouts do not carry over into overtime.
3. All players except the shooter will play the release on a free throw. The shooter and all players outside of the three point lane must play the rim. Should a player enter the lane before the ball is released, a lane violation will be called.
4. There is a no stalling rule. If the officials deem a team to be stalling, they may institute a thirty second shot clock at any time. There is a mandatory thirty second shot clock in the last two minutes of regulation.
5. There is a ten second back court call.
6. A team reaches the bonus after seven team fouls. A team in the bonus will shoot free throws one and one for each additional foul. At ten team fouls, the double bonus rules apply and the team will shoot two free throws.

7. The shot clock will reset to thirty seconds when the ball hits the rim. The shot clock does not restart for fouls or timeouts.

8. Substitutions are allowed at any dead ball. Players wishing to sub into the game must let the score keeper know, and may not sub in until called into the game by the officials.

9. Overtime will be two minutes of gameplay with a 30 second shot clock instituted at the one minute mark. Double Overtime will be one minute long with a thirty second shot clock. Triple overtime will be sudden death.

Personal Code of Conduct:

Players should be respectful of all league representatives, referees, and fellow players. A technical foul may be administered for disrespectful behavior at the discretion of the referees.

If a technical foul is called, the result is two free throws and the ball. A player must sit out one minute after being assessed a technical foul. Two technical fouls will result in ejection from the game. A technical foul also results in a team foul, but no additional free throws will be granted for bonus situations. If one team gets three technical fouls, the game will end with the team receiving the technical being assessed a loss for personal misconduct regardless of the in-game score.

If a player retains two personal technical fouls, that player must leave the premises. A player receiving two personal technical in one game will not be eligible to play the next game. He must sit out at least one game before returning to league play.

A team that has a game called due to personal misconduct will be ejected from the tournament with no refund.

No jewelry is allowed during game play with the exception of religious jewelry. A player will be given one warning to remove jewelry. If the player refuses to cooperate, they may be assessed a technical foul.

Fighting is not tolerated in any way and will result in an immediate ejection from the game with no refund.

A person excessively violating the personal conduct rules may be ejected from the tournament.

All players must be at least 18 years of age
